Are you serving or selling alcoholic beverages at your event?

Yes: You do not need a license/permit.

No: You must have liquor available for purchase. Industry member must provide tastings pursuant to tasting rules.

I am selling drinks.

Only tastes will be provided.

Are you serving or selling liquor?

Yes: You need a license.

No: Move to next page

Who is providing the tastes?

Me

Industry Member

Class "E" Liquor License Holder – Grocery, liquor, convenience stores, etc.
Class "A" Beer Permit Holder – Brewery or Wholesale Beer Distributor
Class "A" Wine Permit Holder – Winery or Wholesale Wine Distributor

Industry Member - Alcohol manufacturer (Distillery, Brewery, Winery)

You must purchase your liquor from a Class "E" Liquor License holder.

You must collect all money from ticket sales (if applicable) and liquor sales. Funds must be processed through your bank account.
Tasting Event

Are you serving or selling alcoholic beverages at your event?

- Yes
  - You need a permit.
  - You must purchase your beer from a Class “A” Beer Permit holder and wine from a Class “A” Wine Permit holder.
  - You must collect all money from ticket sales (if applicable) and beer/wine sales. Funds must be processed through your bank account.

- No
  - Industry members must provide tastings pursuant to tasting rules.
  - You must have the same type of alcohol being tasted available for purchase.
  - Licensee/permittee must have the same type of alcohol being tasted available for purchase.
  - If you don’t hold the license, you must get permission from the licensee/permittee to bring beer/wine onto the licensed premises. The license/permit must allow the type of alcohol being tasted. You may purchase your wine/beer from a licensed retailer.
  - Tastes of beer/wine must be provided free of charge to be consumed without a permit. You must comply with local ordinances.
  - You must purchase beer/wine from a licensed off-premises retailer.

Is someone providing tastes of beer or wine?

- Yes
  - You need a permit.
  - Industry members must provide tastings pursuant to tasting rules.

- No
  - Industry members must provide tastings pursuant to tasting rules.

Will this event be held on a licensed premises?

- Yes
  - You do not need a license or permit.
  - Industry members must provide tastings pursuant to tasting rules.

- No
  - Who is providing the tastes?
    - Industry Member
      - Industry members must provide tastings pursuant to tasting rules.
    - Me
      - Licensee/permittee must have the same type of alcohol being tasted available for purchase.
      - If you don’t hold the license, you must get permission from the licensee/permittee to bring beer/wine onto the licensed premises. The license/permit must allow the type of alcohol being tasted. You may purchase your wine/beer from a licensed retailer.
      - Tastes of beer/wine must be provided free of charge to be consumed without a permit. You must comply with local ordinances.
      - You must purchase beer/wine from a licensed off-premises retailer.

Are you selling beer or wine?

- Yes
  - You need a permit.
  - You must purchase your beer from a Class “A” Beer Permit holder and wine from a Class “A” Wine Permit holder.

- No
  - Industry members must provide tastings pursuant to tasting rules.
  - Me
    - You do not need a license or permit.

Class “E” Liquor License Holder – Grocery, liquor, convenience stores, etc.
Class “A” Beer Permit Holder – Brewery or Wholesale Beer Distributor
Class “A” Wine Permit Holder – Winery or Wholesale Wine Distributor
Industry Member – Alcohol manufacturer (Distillery, Brewery, Winery)